

Pittsburgh River Cruise Tour Plus IKEA

July 12, 2012

Grand Concourse Luncheon and a Sightseeing Cruise

- Complete Luncheon at the Grand Concourse Restaurant ~ Just try to find a restaurant with more grandeur and elegance than Grand Concourse, located in what was once the main waiting area for a busy train station. The high vaulted ceilings, original details and huge staircase make for a stunning atmosphere indeed.
- Sightseeing Cruise aboard the Gateway Clipper Fleet – There is no better way to see America’s Most Livable City than from the decks of a riverboat. Enjoy the Captain’s expert narration on all things Pittsburgh – past and present during this one hour cruise. You will be amazed by all the fascinating facts that you didn’t know about the three rivers, the city and its history.
- Time to shop at Station Square
- IKEA - Time to shop and browse in this store that has something for everyone.
- Activity Level: Mild

$69.00 Per Person
