SHAW FESTIVAL
NIAGARA-on-the-LAKE, CANADA
Saturday – Sunday, August 11 - 12, 2012

The Shaw Festival is the only theatre in the world that specializes in the plays of Bernard Shaw and his contemporaries (1856-1950) – plays about the beginning of the modern world. In 2000, the Shaw Festival expanded this mandate to include contemporary plays set during Shaw’s lifetime, as well as plays written during the period. Presented in three distinctive theatres (the Festival, the Court House and the Royal George) in the historic town of Niagara-on-the-Lake, the Shaw’s work engages, the imagination, illuminates the past and inspires debate about the future. Live theatre, shopping galleries, attractions, books, fashion, gifts, specialty foods and much more await you in this delightful town.
